

Alumni Updates

Josh Bennett (03 Dance) is currently performing in the company of the national tour of the musical Oklahoma! Josh can also be seen in the current film release The Producers. He is a member of the dance ensemble.

Mathew Bennett (01 Theatre) is currently writing plays in Salt Lake City. One of his plays was recently produced by the Plan-B Theatre Company. Plan-B was founded by SUU alumni and has established its presence as a successful theatre company in the Salt Lake City area.

Pete Hulin (03 Theatre) is working as a lighting technician on the International tour of West Side Story. He reports the tour is currently in China.

Kevin Lindsay (04 Dance) is working with STREB, Dance, Danger, Action!, a Brooklyn New York based group.

Tom Marrott (05 Theatre) is currently employed with Oasis Stageworks in Salt Lake City as a light and sound technician.

Zane Perkins (05 Theatre) is working for Disneyworld in Florida.

Karen Quisenberry (88 Theatre) left Yale School of Drama as Head of their Stage Management Program and now teaches Stage Management at University of Illinois, Urbana-Champagne.

Keala Settle, (former Theatre student) is currently playing the lead in the national tour of Hairspray.

Chad Taylor (05 Theatre) was recently cast in a production of The Full Monty at the Egyptian Theatre in Park City, Utah.

Alicia Tafoya (03 Theatre) will be graduating from Texas Tech with her Master's Degree in Theatre this year.

Jared "Head" Ullman (04 Theatre) is the Assistant Audio Technician for the national tour of the musical Rent.

Michael Winslow and Haley Winslow (04 Music) were published in the Music Educators Journal in January 2006. Their article entitled "Using the Native American Flute in Beginning Instrumental Classroom" is in part a result of the work they did in a honors scholarship research project with former music faculty Dr. Gerard Yun during their junior/senior year at Cross Hollows Intermediate School.

Bill Byrnes, January 21, 2006