

DAY ONE: MONDAY NOVEMBER 2, 2009

TIME	TITLE OF WORKSHOP	PRESENTER NAME AND TITLE	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
9:00-9:50 am	Resume Development	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	Overview of resume and cover letter development. Guidelines for the development of each section of the resume. Descriptions of the different types of resumes and when to use them.
10:00-10:50 am	A Life's Work: A Documentary by FYS Mentors	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	How do people come to choose their careers? Do they fall into them or do they follow a straight path? In this workshop, participants will view A Life's Work, a documentary directed and filmed by First Year Seminar Mentors, where they will hear stories of how folks came to be what they are professionally. In the film, Mentors interview various faculty and staff at SUU to draw out the stories of each person life's work.
11:00-11:50 am	Opening the door to a career with the Public Land Management agencies.	Seth Ohms Intergovernmental Internship Cooperative Campus Coordinator	Theatre	The best jobs in life are jobs where you enjoy doing the work you do each day. If you enjoy working in the outdoors, a career with a public land management agency can be the best way to achieve that. But that is not all, a career with a public land management agency can range from Accounting to Zoology and every academic area in between. The IIC is comprised representative from the majority of the southern Utah region agencies, including the National Park Service, the US National Forest Service, The Bureau of Land Management and Utah State Parks and Recreation. IIC staff invites you to come join them to learn more about how you can open your door to a successful career with the public land management agencies today!
	The Billion Dollar Scholarship Workshop	Brendan Dalley, Community Education Liaison Univeristy of Phoenix	Starlight	Learn the tips and tricks to tap into the billions of dollars of scholarships available. There are scholarships available for all ages, incomes, GPA's, Associates, Bachelors and even Masters programs. It's not rocket science, it's just knowing where and how to start.
12:00-12:50 pm	Undergraduate Research and Scholarship: Myths, Legends, and the Reality in Between	Lynn White Professor of Psychology	Theatre	Contrary to popular belief, undergraduate research and scholarship activities span across all majors and fields of study. We will address this along with such topics as: defining research and scholarship, the personal and professional benefits of engaging in inquiry based learning, how to get started and mistakes to avoid, and funding undergraduate research and scholarship. This session is intended for students who want to make the most out of their education and beyond - regardless of whether they plan to go to graduate school.
1:00-1:50PM	Overcoming Barriers to Sudent Success	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	Reviews the different levels of barriers, both real and perceived, how to recognize them and ways in which they can be overcome.
2:00-2:50PM	TED Talks	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	What do professional jobs really entail? How does one evolve professionally? Consider the "behind the scenes" professional work of nationally recognized figures in the speaking series TED Talks as each person discusses their careers and unique discoveries in that work.

DAY TWO: TUESDAY NOVEMBER 3, 2009

TIME	TITLE OF WORKSHOP	PRESENTER NAME AND TITLE	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
8:00-8:50 am	The Health Profession Journey: Keeping Students on Track	Rita Osborn Associate Director for Utah Center for Rural Health	Starlight	This workshop will highlight specific tips, activities and strategies you can utilize and develop in order to be successful attaining your goal in a health career.
	Overcoming Barriers to Student Success	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	Reviews the different levels of barriers, both real and perceived, how to recognize them and ways in which they can be overcome.
9:00-9:50 am	A Life's Work: A Documentary by FYS Mentors	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	How do people come to choose their careers? Do they fall into them or do they follow a straight path? In this workshop, participants will view A Life's Work, a documentary directed and filmed by First Year Seminar Mentors, where they will hear stories of how folks came to be what they are professionally. In the film, Mentors interview various faculty and staff at SUU to draw out the stories of each person life's work.
10:00-10:50 am	How Studying Abroad Can Help You Find a Job	Tessa McNeel Study Abroad Coordinator	Theatre	Studying abroad is an incredible experience that can benefit you well beyond your college years. Find out how it can help you land a job after graduation, especially in a difficult and very competitive job market
11:00-11:50 am	Opening the door to a career with the Public Land Management agencies.	Seth Ohms Intergovernmental Internship Cooperative Campus Coordinator	Theatre	The best jobs in life are jobs where you enjoy doing the work you do each day. If you enjoy working in the outdoors, a career with a public land management agency can be the best way to achieve that. But that is not all, a career with a public land management agency can range from Accounting to Zoology and every academic area in between. The IIC is comprised representative from the majority of the southern Utah region agencies, including the National Park Service, the US National Forest Service, The Bureau of Land Management and Utah State Parks and Recreation. IIC staff invites you to come join them to learn more about how you can open your door to a successful career with the public land management agencies today!
12:00-12:50 pm	Opportunities in Higher Education as a Career	Dina Nielsen Assistant Dean of Students	Theatre	Careers in higher education may not seem fun and glamorous, but where else do you get to spend your whole day with students, planning events like the Howl, participating in the Homecoming parade, bringing in world famous speakers for Convocations, and other such things? Come be part of the discussion about careers that keep you actively involved in university and student life.
1:00-1:50 pm	Creating Your Personal Mission Statement	Carly Wilson Academic Advisor	Theatre	Identify your personal values and articulate your purpose to make academic and career choices that are a good fit.

DAY THREE: WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 4, 2009

TIME	TITLE OF WORKSHOP	PRESENTER NAME AND TITLE	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
8:00-8:50 am	Job Interview Guidelines and Techniques	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	Guidelines for a successful interview, including the types of questions asked and how to respond to them, the types of interviews, and professional dress and comportment for the interview.
9:00-9:50 am	Service, Service-Learning and the Service Learning Scholar Program	Earl Mulderink Professor of History	Theatre	Learn ways to promote these learning opportunities among students and across campus.
10:00-10:50 am		Alla Paroiatnikova Director of International Outreach	Theatre
11:00-11:50 am	Opening the door to a career with the Public Land Management agencies.	Seth Ohms Intergovernmental Internship Cooperative Campus Coordinator	Theatre	The best jobs in life are jobs where you enjoy doing the work you do each day. If you enjoy working in the outdoors, a career with a public land management agency can be the best way to achieve that. But that is not all, a career with a public land management agency can range from Accounting to Zoology and every academic area in between. The IIC is comprised representative from the majority of the southern Utah region agencies, including the National Park Service, the US National Forest Service, The Bureau of Land Management and Utah State Parks and Recreation. IIC staff invites you to come join them to learn more about how you can open your door to a successful career with the public land management agencies today!
12:00-12:50 pm	TED Talks	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	What do professional jobs really entail? How does one evolve professionally? Consider the "behind the scenes" professional work of nationally recognized figures in the speaking series TED Talks as each person discusses their careers and unique discoveries in that work.
1:00-1:50 pm	Undergraduate Research and Scholarship: Myths, Legends, and the Reality in Between	Lynn White Professor of Psychology	Theatre	Contrary to popular belief, undergraduate research and scholarship activities span across all majors and fields of study. We will address this along with such topics as: defining research and scholarship, the personal and professional benefits of engaging in inquiry based learning, how to get started and mistakes to avoid, and funding undergraduate research and scholarship. This session is intended for students who want to make the most out of their education and beyond - regardless of whether they plan to go to graduate school.
	The Billion Dollar Scholarship Workshop	Brendan Dalley, Community Education Liaison Univeristy of Phoenix	Starlight	Learn the tips and tricks to tap into the billions of dollars of scholarships available. There are scholarships available for all ages, incomes, GPA's, Associates, Bachelors and even Masters programs. It's not rocket science, it's just knowing where and how to start.
	Following your passion: Careers Outside	Bridget Eastep	Cedar Breaks	In life there are many ways to make decisions about what you want to do for a profession. One way is to follow your passion. For many following their passions leads them to a non-traditional, but fully rewarding career in the outdoor realm: land management, conservation, outdoor education, and outdoor tourism are all viable ways to follow your passion. After this session participants will be able to consider at least three outdoor career paths and will know the education options available to set them on those paths.
2:00-2:50 pm	Service, Service-Learning and the Service Learning Scholar Program	Earl Mulderink Professor of History	Starlight	Learn ways to promote these learning opportunities among students and across campus.
	Starting an SUU Career Net Account	Michael Carmine Assistant Director of Career Development	Theatre	Set up an SUU CareerNet account. Find out what it is and how to use it. Using it can help you find employment and internship opportunities.

DAY FOUR: THURSDAY NOVEMBER 5, 2009

TIME	TITLE OF WORKSHOP	PRESENTER NAME AND TITLE	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
8:00-8:50 am	A Life's Work: A Documentary by FYS Mentors	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	How do people come to choose their careers? Do they fall into them or do they follow a straight path? In this workshop, participants will view A Life's Work, a documentary directed and filmed by First Year Seminar Mentors, where they will hear stories of how folks came to be what they are professionally. In the film, Mentors interview various faculty and staff at SUU to draw out the stories of each person life's work.
9:00-9:50 am	International Business Communications	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	An introduction to the nuances of doing business in a global economy and how not to offend those of different nationalities.
10:00-10:50 am	Finding the Open Road: The 'Round About Way to Finding Success	Stephen Harrison Executive Director of University Housing	Theatre	Utilizing the book, "Finding the Open Road: A Guide to Self-Construction Rather Than Mass Production" by Mike Marriner, Brian McAllister and Nathan Gebhard, this session will focus on stepping off the typical linear path towards "success" (whatever that is?). If you're thinking about choosing a major, career or what you might have for lunch this session might be helpful.
11:00-11:50 am	Opening the door to a career with the Public Land Management agencies.	Steve McCarthy	Theatre	The best jobs in life are jobs where you enjoy doing the work you do each day. If you enjoy working in the outdoors, a career with a public land management agency can be the best way to achieve that. But that is not all, a career with a public land management agency can range from Accounting to Zoology and every academic area in between. The IIC is comprised representative from the majority of the southern Utah region agencies, including the National Park Service, the US National Forest Service, The Bureau of Land Management and Utah State Parks and Recreation. IIC staff invites you to come join them to learn more about how you can open your door to a successful career with the public land management agencies today!
12:00-12:50 pm	TED Talks	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	What do professional jobs really entail? How does one evolve professionally? Consider the "behind the scenes" professional work of nationally recognized figures in the speaking series TED Talks as each person discusses their careers and unique discoveries in that work.
1:00-1:50 pm	A Life's Work: A Documentary by FYS Mentors	Jill Wilks Director of First Year Experience & Learning Assistance	Theatre	How do people come to choose their careers? Do they fall into them or do they follow a straight path? In this workshop, participants will view A Life's Work, a documentary directed and filmed by First Year Seminar Mentors, where they will hear stories of how folks came to be what they are professionally. In the film, Mentors interview various faculty and staff at SUU to draw out the stories of each person life's work.
2:00-2:50 pm	How to Prepare for Graduate School	Nicole Funderburk Graduate Recruitment Coordinator	Theatre	Learn why you should go to graduate school, how to find graduate programs in your area of interest and what it takes to get in. You'll gain valuable information and tips for taking graduate entrance exams.

DAY FIVE: FRIDAY NOVEMBER 6, 2009

TIME	TITLE OF WORKSHOP	PRESENTER NAME AND TITLE	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
8:00-8:50 am	Job Search Techniques	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	How to find a job in today's environment, including things to do before beginning the search, how to conduct the search as well as an overview of resumes and interviewing tips.
9:00-9:50 am
10:00-10:50 am		Donna Eddleman Vice President for Student Services	Theatre
11:00-11:50 am	Opening the door to a career with the Public Land Management agencies.	Steve McCarthy	Theatre	The best jobs in life are jobs where you enjoy doing the work you do each day. If you enjoy working in the outdoors, a career with a public land management agency can be the best way to achieve that. But that is not all, a career with a public land management agency can range from Accounting to Zoology and every academic area in between. The IIC is comprised representative from the majority of the southern Utah region agencies, including the National Park Service, the US National Forest Service, The Bureau of Land Management and Utah State Parks and Recreation. IIC staff invites you to come join them to learn more about how you can open your door to a successful career with the public land management agencies today!
12:00-12:50 pm	Starting an SUU Career Net Account	Michael Carmine Assistant Director of Career Development	Theatre	Set up an SUU CareerNet account. Find out what it is and how to use it. Using it can help you find employment and internship opportunities.
1:00-1:50 pm	Job Search Techniques	Brent Jones Academic and Career Advisor	Theatre	How to find a job in today's environment, including things to do before beginning the search, how to conduct the search as well as an overview of resumes and interviewing tips.
2:00-2:50 pm	Undergraduate Research and Scholarship: Myths, Legends, and the Reality in Between	Lynn White Professor of Psychology	Theatre	Contrary to popular belief, undergraduate research and scholarship activities span across all majors and fields of study. We will address this along with such topics as: defining research and scholarship, the personal and professional benefits of engaging in inquiry based learning, how to get started and mistakes to avoid, and funding undergraduate research and scholarship. This session is intended for students who want to make the most out of their education and beyond - regardless of whether they plan to go to graduate school.