Principal*

David D. Torres serves as Assistant Professor, Director of Athletic Bands/Trumpet at Southern Utah University. He teaches applied trumpet lessons and conducts the Symphonic Band & Brass Choir and directs the Thunderbird Marching Band & Sound Machine Basketball Bands. A renowned performer, educator, and arranger, Mr. Torres holds dual Master of Music degrees (Trumpet, Wind Conducting) from New Mexico State University.

Dr. Adam Lambert is Director of Bands and Brass Studies at Southern Utah University. He directs the Wind Symphony, Brass Ensemble, & Jazz Ensemble One and teaches conducting and private trumpet. Dr. Lambert is a conductor and clinician for orchestras, concert bands, and jazz bands throughout the region. As a trumpet soloist, he has given performances at many colleges and universities throughout the Midwest. He holds degrees in music education from BYU and a doctorate in Trumpet Performances from the University of North Texas.

Thank you for joining us this evening!

MUSIC AT SOUTHERN UTAH UNIVERSITY

Southern Utah University is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) and offers SUU students a wide array of musical opportunities that can lead to a performance degree in music or a teaching degree in music. We also offer numerous performance electives for both music and non-music majors in several large and small ensembles. Because the SUU music faculty has an exceptional combination of both teaching and performing expertise, our students have won state, regional, and national recognition for their efforts and have gone on to successful careers in teaching and professional performance.

2024-2025 MUSIC MASTERWORKS SERIES

The Music Masterworks Series showcases the talents and hard work of over 300 Music students and our esteemed Music faculty. We invite you to take part in the arts with us!
